After 20 Wonderful Years . . . . . Paul Rardin Retires From County Politics

Statement Is Put Into County Board Records On Monday

Below is a statement outgoing County Commissioner Paul Rardin put into the records of the county commission at Monday's official county board meeting:

"Today brings to a close 20 years of service on the county commission and two other years that I served as state representative of Palm Beach County. During nearly a quarter of a century it has been a genuine pleasure to serve the people of Palm Beach County. And, it has also been a pleasure to work with other commissioners and department heads under the direction of the county commission. Also, I have been happy with the associations I have had with other elective officials in the court house. Their cooperation has been splendid.

"I am especially happy with the association I have had with members of the Republican party on our board since they came into the majority two years ago. It was their majority vote that named me vice chairman of the board for this year and I am particularly proud of this honor.

"I deeply appreciate the wide acclaim the people of the county have given me during the more than 20 years I have had the pleasure and privilege of serving them. I will always treasure the memory of the three unanimous votes which declared me chairman of the county commission. I shall remember with pride my service as secretary-treasurer and as president of the State Association of County Commissioners and, too, I shall not forget the five times I was named a member of the roads and highways committee of the National Association of County Officials.

"It has been a distinct pleasure to serve the citizens of Palm Beach County and especially the folks in the Fifth commissioner's district. The fifth district of this county is the largest commissioner's district in Florida. In acreage it is larger than any one of 62 out of the 67 counties in Florida and the population of the district is larger than any one of 47 out of the 67 counties in the state.

"To the folks in my home district I shall ever be grateful for the manner in which they have always received my candidacy for office. Not once through the years have they failed to recognize my sincere effort to serve them and the citizenry of the county at large. For this splendid showing of loyalty and confidence I am deeply grateful. For the incoming county commission I predict wholehearted cooperation among the members and wish each and every one of them a happy and prosperous New Year full of outstanding accomplishments for the taxpayers of Palm Beach County."

Resumes The Active Management Of His Canal Point Paper

After devoting the past 20 years almost exclusively to the affairs of county government as a member of the Palm Beach county commission, Paul Rardin on Tuesday of this week was back in harness as an active working newspaper man and was to be found at his desk in The Everglades News office in the Rardin Building in Canal Point. Rardin has been owner-publisher of the paper for 30 years.

Rardin's retirement from Palm Beach county politics brought a round of festivities which were highly appreciated by him and Mrs. Rardin. Only a few days ago the county board declared "Paul Rardin Appreciation Day In Palm Beach County," and his friends and neighbors honored the retiring commissioner and Mrs. Rardin at a neighborhood dinner at the Community Building in Canal Point.

Immediately following the dinner the dedication of "Paul Rardin Park" was held at the site on SR715 between Pahokee and Belle Glade where the county has built a beautiful park with picnic shelters and barbecue pits with rest rooms and many conveniences usually found at an up-to-date park. The county commission named the park after Commissioner Rardin with an appropriate resolution.

The same day the dedication was held, employees at the Glades Office Building held "Open House" and a reception honoring the commissioner and his wife. Large crowds attended all three functions which were held on Dec. 13.

On Christmas Eve members of the road crew at the county barn near the Glades Office Building presented Mr. Rardin with a handsome Rod and Reel. He expects to use it frequently during the coming months.

On Monday of this week at the regular county commission meeting he was presented with a silver service by Glades friends. The presentation was made by Former Pahokee Mayor O. B. McClure and Pahokee City Council President Carmen Salvatore. The service was in the same pattern as that of the silver used in the Rardin household.

CHRISTMAS IN COCOA

Mr. and Mrs. George Ramey spent the Christmas holidays with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Miller in Cocoa. Mrs. Ramey plans to remain with her daughter until the end of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Branyon of Melbourne spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cross in Canal Point.

Resolution Made By The Commission In Honor Of Rardin

In an official action at Monday's county commission meeting, the board unanimously adopted a resolution complimenting outgoing Commissioner Paul Rardin for his 20 years of service. The Resolution read as follows:

Whereas, Honorable Paul Rardin, by election of the voters of Palm Beach County, became a County Commissioner on January 1, 1945, and his term expires on January 5, 1965; and

Whereas, Mr. Rardin during the twenty years that he has been a County Commissioner, has on several occasions been elected by his colleagues as Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, and during said period of time has been aggressive, progressive and tireless in his efforts in playing an important part in the growth and development of Palm Beach County, and particularly in the Everglades Area,

And by his initiative, has been responsible for the establishment of County administrative offices and facilities in the Everglades Area, which has added to the efficiency, economy and operation of County government, and has made available to the citizens and residents of the area, governmental services which have been of great value, and the services rendered by him are deemed by members of this Board to be noteworthy and an expression in relation thereto to be appropriate, and should be made a matter of public record,

Now, Therefore, be it resolved by the Board of County Commissioners of Palm Beach County, Florida, in regular session assembled on this, the 28th day of December, A. D. 1964, that the members of this Board do highly commend Mr. Paul Rardin for the long, faithful and efficient services rendered by him to the citizens of Palm Beach County, and do extend to him the best wishes of his fellow members for his future happiness and welfare.

Be it further resolved that this resolution be spread in full in the minutes of this meeting and that a signed, certified copy be presented to Mr. Rardin.

Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

A schedule of priority for Palm Beach County's $50 million road and bridge building program is set for drafting prior to January 7 when the board holds its annual reorganization.

The board arrived at a decision to take a close look at the bond program projects since construction cost are soaring above original estimates. Commissioners face the task of curtailing the planned program and establishing a priority schedule for projects which are retained.

Commissioner Lake Lytal asked for the review and priority schedule, saying that no more work should be done until the priorities have been selected. His motion died for lack of a second and then the board went on to approve a motion by Commissioner George Warren calling for a priority meeting but allowing planning and right of way work to proceed as scheduled.

Lytal said the board should establish a priority for the projects—proceeding with the jobs that are most important to the most people. After making the selection, Lytal said, the public should be informed as to which jobs will be given priority treatment.

In other road building activities, the board:

Approved entering a condemnation suit for remaining parcels needed for the Monet Road project.

Asked that the legal and right of way departments speed up right of way condemnation proceedings on Military Trail.

Decided to give further study to construction of a railroad crossing and safety gates over the Seaboard tracks at Haverhill Road. The project has been estimated to cost some $48,000 and commissioners believed the amount to be excessive. Plans are being studied to move the rail and highway junction to a point farther north where a single set of tracks would have to be crossed. At the original location, a double set of tracks figure in the plan.

County Commissioners Monday voted to send Henry Lillenthal, Asst. County Attorney to a Chicago meeting January 15 where representatives from across the country will attend a legal clinic concerning handling of noise abatement cases arising from airport operations.

Around The Glades

(By Paul Rardin)

Do you know Sam Senter? He is a Belle Glade vegetable farmer and broker. Sam does a lot of nice things for the community where he makes a living. A couple of years back he donated freely several miles of right-of-way for Hatton Highway. Recently he donated the use of a Trailways Bus to the Patonettes—Belle Glade twirling group—to make the trip to Coral Gables to take part in the Junior Orange Bowl Parade. Nice, don't you think?

Empty bottles! The soft drink kind. They are stacked up in front of a few grocery stores to the point where you can't see the stores.

Harlan Sears is busy these days preparing his new store location for moving his hardware stock within the next few days. Workmen have been busy converting the machine shop into a handsome new hardware store location. Painters have been busy and moving will start with the idea in mind that everything will be in its new location not later than February 1, 1965.

Corn and celery have been doing fairly well on the market this week. Corn is bringing around $2.25 per acre and celery is notched up at $2.50. Growers say they can live with these prices if they don't get any lower.

Labor Shortages Shown In Florida

ORLANDO—Announcement that the U. S. Dept. of Labor plans to launch a massive recruitment effort to fill seasonal farm jobs in Florida, California, Arizona, and Texas brought the prediction from a Florida Fruit & Vegetable Association spokesman that the drive would confirm the existence of widespread labor shortages.

"We'll gladly accept any help they want to give us, even though we don't expect much in the way of results," said W. H. Anderson, Jr., manager of the FFVA Labor Division.

Anderson cited recent findings of the Florida State Employment Service that farm jobs are going begging in most active farming and citrus areas, and pointed out that independent efforts by farmers and growers to recruit workers have yielded disappointing results.

He explained that he expects the federal agency will try to talk farmers into raising wages even higher than now required by the labor agency's regulations. "They would like to claim that labor shortages could be overcome with higher wages," Anderson said. "But wages have climbed in every segment of our industry for several years and our shortages continue to increase."

Florida fruit and vegetable producers who employ foreign workers already pay all workers in their hire a minimum of 95 cents an hour. Sugar cane growers pay at least $1.15 per hour, with the average worker earning substantially more than these minimum wage levels.

Anderson said that about 13,000 foreign workers are now employed throughout Florida agriculture on a supplemental basis. Several thousand more domestic workers are expected to come to Florida after the holiday season as in the past, but present statewide shortages are expected to become severe with the approach of peak harvest operations in January and February.

Some crops, Anderson explained, including sugar cane, should set record production levels if harvests can be completed without losses.

Mrs. M. F. George has returned to her home after a trip to Bartow with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stalls where they were the guests of their sister.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bordeaux spent Christmas day with her niece in Ft. Lauderdale.

Whidden, Adams In A New Location

Attorney Thadd Whidden and Attorney Don Adams will move their law offices into the building at 161 S. Lake Avenue formerly occupied by Rashley Cleaners and be open for business tomorrow (Saturday) morning. The two popular lawyers will be associated together in the same building but their association will not constitute a partnership.

Attorney Whidden has been in law practice in Pahokee since 1931 and for many years was counsel for the City of Pahokee. Today he is attorney for East Beach Drainage District and maintains offices in the Jones Building on Bacom Point Road in Pahokee.

Attorney Adams has been associated with Jones, Adams, Payne and Foster, an outstanding law firm in West Palm Beach, for two years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Adams of Carlissa Drive and is married to the former Miss Frances Wilson, daughter of Frank Wilson of Canal Point. He has a degree in engineering and is a member of the Florida Bar.

Workmen have been busy for several days completely remodeling the new office space for the two attorneys and when completed it will be modern and air conditioned throughout.

Larry Livingston arrived at International Airport in Miami from Dallas, Texas, on Christmas Eve and spent the weekend with his parent, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Livingston, and his sister, Linda, and other relatives in the Canal Point area. He returned to Dallas by jet on Monday, December 28. His parents met him at the airport and drove him back to Miami on Monday accompanied by his grandmother, Mrs. Ben Rogers.

Miss Lisa Lombard of Miami is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Miller.

Mrs. Annie Mae Smith has returned to Decatur, Ga., where she is superintendent of dormitories at Agnes Scott College after a visit with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Harrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Reuthain of Little Rock, Ark., have been the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Hatton during the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williams have as their guests, her father, Othan Gilbert of Carrollton, Ga. and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Othan Gilbert, Jr., of Washington, D. C.

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new  $3\frac{3}{4}\%$  interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to  $2\frac{1}{4}\%$  for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed  $4\%$  each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra  $\frac{1}{4}\%$  from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic  $\frac{1}{4}\%$  increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installment are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for science. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

Forgotten Children To Be Remembered

MIAMI — A big tractor-trailer truck loaded to the top with toys and goodies began a 1,400-mile sentimental journey on Friday, Dec. 18, in Miami. The mission was to take holiday happiness to Florida's "forgotten children."

The occasion was the fourth annual statewide Christmas-Chaukah Party for Retarded Children, originated and directed by Abe S. Goldman, regional director of community services for Sunland Training Centers.

Parties were held at six Dade institutions on Friday. The following day the caravan took to the road for visits to Sunland Centers in Ft. Myers, Orlando, Gainesville and Marianna, returning to Miami Tuesday, Dec. 22.

The event is sponsored by Food Fair Stores and its department store subsidiary, J. M. Fields, Inc. with a cost of more than $14,000. In addition to Food Fair's $10,000 sponsorship, Bernard Kirkin of Army Salvage Stores has contributed $3,600, and Ed Bell of Miami Lincoln-Mercury is supplying seven autos, and Humble Oil Co. is providing gas and oil for the trip.

Each of the more than 6,000 children will receive two gifts as well as candy, fruit and party favors. In addition, there are "group gifts" including playground equipment, bicycles and radios for several of the institutions.

Among dignitaries accompanying the caravan is State Treasurer J. Edwin Larson.

County Commissioner Paul Rardin, who is retiring from the board January 5, after being a commissioner from the Glades District for the past 20 years.

J. Alex Arnette, who is retiring as Clerk of the Circuit Court after 24 years service.

Rardin drew a bonus, a gift from the citizens of the district he has represented on the board. O. B. McClure, a resident of Pahokee, presented the Glades commissioner with a silver service during the meeting.

Rardin pointed out that his service to the county had been a personal pleasure and that he was most happy with the opportunity afforded him to make many official friends throughout the county and state.

Arnette noted that he has served 12 different county commissions since he took office; that he has known that most of the boards have had many problems which were always met "head on."

"Palm Beach County," he said, "has been known for many years as the best operated county in the state. This I know to be true."

In another resolution—this on a note of sympathy—was adopted by the commission in the Christmas Day death of Ben F. Sundy, former county commissioner from Delray Beach.

County Commissioners Monday shuffled their January meeting schedule to allow members to attend a school of instruction for county commissioners set at Tallahassee on January 18.

The board cancelled its scheduled January 18 meeting and will take up the regular meeting scheduled again on January 25.

Insurance Concern Is Formed In State

TALLAHASSEE — A group of top political and financial figures, including Gov. Farris Bryant and DuPont executive Ed Ball, have applied to the state for permission to organize a multi-million dollar insurance company.

Name of the company would be the Good Life Insurance Co. and it would be authorized to issue five million shares of common stock at par value of one dollar per share. Bryant, Ball and 13 others agreed to invest $100,000 each to get the new business going. Headquarters apparently would be Jacksonville.

State Insurance Commissioner J. Edwin Larson told newsmen the application has been around for some time but approval is being withheld until the organizers furnished a list of the officials, who will run the company.

The $100,000 subscribers include State Comptroller Ray E. Green, Development Commission Chairman Wendell Jarrard, Citrus Commission member Sam A. Banks, Tom Johnson of Tampa, executive secretary of the Florida Association of Insurance Agents; Henry D. Kramer, president of Food Fair and Pic-N-Save drug chains, and Jim Walter, Tampa home builder and financier.

How to speak out for freedom today

Free men have never gone in much for silence. Even before the first thirteen States became United States, men were speaking for freedom loud and clear.

Today Americans speak out for freedom many ways—in Congress, in local government, in neighborhood activities. Some speak out for freedom in other languages, in other lands. And millions of Americans speak out for freedom every time they buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in freedom. While you're saving money for your own family's future, you're helping Uncle Sam tend to the business of keeping men free today.

Perhaps you don't speak out for freedom in the same tone of voice when you buy a Bond as Patrick Henry did in his famous speech. But you speak every bit as surely. And every bit as proudly.

Why not speak out for freedom now? Buy Bonds at the bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with
